How Our Title Loans Work

1. Getting connected to your nearest Cash Cow location is easy. You may either contact them directly by phone or use our simple online request form to send your information to your closest location for a quick call back from one of our friendly store representative.
2. After submitting the request form, have your phone handy to answer the call from a representative at your nearest Cash Cow location. On this call, they will confirm your information, answer any questions you have, and explain the required items that are needed. To get a title loan, you will need to bring your vehicle, its lien-free title, and your government-issued photo ID.
3. A representative will complete a quick inspection of your vehicle when you arrive at your local Cash Cow location or the location that you choose to meet. While this is taking place, you will have the process explained to you and have a chance to ask any questions.
4. After your loan amount is determined, you can complete the simple paperwork and receive anywhere

Title Loan FAQs

What if my car title is not in my name?

To get a title loan with Cash Cow you need to have the vehicle title in your name. You will need to go to the DMV and have the title transferred to your name prior to applying for a loan.

How do you determine the value of my vehicle?

The value of your vehicle is based on the value as stated in a nationally recognized pricing guide, and the condition of the vehicle, as determined by a physical inspection.
